Michael Novak, a young Russian, and heard of the United States, and lad come to America with two strong trms and a stout heart. When he coked for work he had only three words at his command, "job" and how much." But three years ago hat was enough, for employers then lired thousands of men who knew not tword of English. Michael began with six dollars a week. He realized he advantage of English and immediately began to study. As his knowledge by the easiest and quickest way. This can best be done by helping them clothe the experiences of daily life in an English garb.

The foreigner lives and moves in a small world of which he is the center and about which he can freely converse in his native tongue. But English lets him into the larger life of America, raises his wages, calls him to a higher standard of living, and is the medium of better communication with his fellow workers. A vocabulary of eight hundred words will suffice if acquired in the form of simple sentences pertaining to every day occurrences. The foreign-tongued men in the inhustries can rise to the maximum of heir efficiency only when they speak the language of the country, and nowhere is the knowledge of a language to important an asset as in the lives of these men in America. Both emoloyers and employes know this.
Slavs, Magyars, Italians, Greeks, Syrans and Persians are anxious to learn English, but the opportunities offered hem are not many. Some public tohools are doing good work, but they are dasse in the desert. The general equipment of schools is ill-adapted to he needs of foreign adults, and the eaching is still more wide of the nark. To squeeze a six foot Austrian

POINTS OF INTEREST. The Beauty of a Couch sed lies in its two fold value a couch by day, a bed by night. The change from a couch to a bed is but the work of a moment and the value is doubly real a moment and the value is doubly appreciated when the unexpected fuests makes an overnight stay. N. Suckingham & Co., State St. have a line line of couches of this description and invite inspection. See adv. Easter is Next!

Even though you do yourself the interest to pass our handsome suits, top coats and Easter garments so full of spring freshness and Easter bloom you'll certainly want something in the furnishing line! Easter hats, stiff and soft hats of the new Spring shapes are ready. The "Guyer" at $2, and others for less. Conservative shapes and colfor conservative men-smart hats neckwear — four-in-hands, imperials scarfs and cravats of all the correct models—exclusive styles and shapes—weaves in silks, that rise way above the level of the ordinary. Sp'endid underwear—choice spring hosiery—tor-very of every good eort, from makers, who make things that are better and different. It's splendid foresight to make Easter preparations early so as to secure the best. Clothes of first quality for Easter wear—also furnishings—nothing else. All are pleasingly priced. John F. "Money in the Till."

I recognize that this perhaps is a plain way of stating this fact and is an odl saying but the man who conducts a business builds his future growth from the cash drawer. Goods displayed are not goods sold because in these busy lays people have not time to analyze as in the olden days. Good goods well displayed with a neat, attractive and plain speaking sign helps a lot. A as in the olden days. Good goods well displayed with a neat, attractive and plain speaking sign helps a lot. A sign at a moment's notice. Not this afternoon, not to-morrow but at this instant is the puzzling feature of window displays. With a ready made sign marker which comes in endless varieties of attractive rubber type it will not take a minute to print a sign that will defy the inspection of the most critical. If you have been gifted with a steady hand and an eye for the artistic with different colored card board, you can get different colored inks which are made specially for lettering and you can print a sign that will help "fill the till."
